

Grand Jury, and was released.

CIRCUIT COURT TOMORROW

Steve John, the Gypsy King, to Face Perjury Charge.

With the opening tomorrow of the March term of Circuit Court several interesting cases will be brought to trial. Steve John, the Gypsy king, will face a charge of perjury in the First Division. He is now out on $1,000 bond. The hearing of the case promises to develop many interesting phases of Gypsy life and customs, as the perjury charge resulted from a case in which a female member of the band was bartered rival leader, who wished her as his wife.

Seven cases have been set for trial tomorrow in the Second Division.

CHANCERY COURT

Clipped By:

canarynoir
Sun, Apr 11, 2021